

Ron Daws Ambassador Award

The Ron Daws Ambassador Award is presented each year to an individual who has been a leader in the development and growth of long-distance running and who has shared a commitment toward Grandma's Marathon and the City of Duluth.

The award is named after Ron Daws, who was a 1968 Olympian and instrumental to the development of road racing in Minnesota. For his life's work, he was inducted into the Road Runners Club of America Hall of Fame in 1986.
