Founder's Award

The Scott A. Keenan Founder's Award is given each year to a person who embodies the history, vision, and spirit of Grandma's Marathon through their chosen area of contribution.

This award is named after Grandma's Marathon founder and longtime executive director, Scott Keenan. Honorees for this award are selected for their loyalty, energy, and willingness to go above and beyond to provide the greatest possible experience to our race participants, sponsors, volunteers, and fans.
